Election/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

Furthermore, there are plural sub-species within the above species, such as a species wherein the sealing processing station is a combined processing station which stamps a tear-off cover from a foil and places it over the hole (as per claim 5, for example) and a different sub-species wherein the sealing processing station is one equipped to apply a previously stamped out tear-off cover (as per claim 6, for example)

(As a side note, Examiner notes that it does not appear that any of the species of Figures 10-11, of Figure 12, or of Figure 13 show the sealing processing station being a combined processing station which stamps a tear off cover from a foil and places it over a hole.)

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species (along with a single sub-species within the elected species) to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

2. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: in accordance with the guidance set forth in MPEP section 1850, it has been determined a posteriori, i.e., after taking the prior art into consideration, that the features common to all the claims, i.e., “an advancing mechanism and a number of processing stations arranged in succession along the advancement direction” wherein the processing stations process objects, do not constitute “special technical features” since they do not make a “contribution” over the prior art in light of at least U.S. Pat. No. 6,098,268 to Negre et al., for example. Specifically note that Negre teaches a processing device comprising an advancing mechanism in the form of conveyor 1 that conveys an object to be processed in an advancement direction A to multiple processing stations 7, 4, 16, for example (see at least Figure 1 and col. 2, lines 51-67 and col. 3, lines 1-27, for example).

3. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

4. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
